

About FirstPerson

FirstPerson Benefit Advisors, one of Indianapolis' top benefits firms, creates customized employee healthcare and welfare benefit programs.

Company representatives tailor programs to a client's specific needs, culture and goals using a systematic approach called WorkingWell. This seven-step cycle services and communicates in a way that provides a level of performance unique to employee benefit companies.

FirstPerson is an advisor to some of Indianapolis' top business leaders, including Katz Sapper Miller, Gene B. Glick Company, ExactTarget, Mike's Car Wash and Krieg DeVault LLP.

The company was named a 2010 Best Places to Work and honored as an Indiana Companies to Watch firm.

FirstPerson professionals serve as thought leaders within NFP Benefits, a nationwide association of top financial and benefit advisors.
